AMAZING LASH STUDIO

There's no greater freedom for a busy woman than waking up, getting dressed, and walking out the door to start her day. And that's the luxuriously simple lifestyle you can grow accustomed to after a lash stylist from the Amazing Lash Studio has applied your lightweight and comfortable semi-permanent eyelash extensions. The extra time you would've spent painstakingly washing away your sleepy raccoon eyes (despite what you thought was a thorough cleansing the night before), then curling your eyelashes and applying enough coats of mascara to look alive first thing in the morning could be allocated toward a longer workout, more quality time with your kids, or 10 precious extra minutes of sleep. But perhaps the true beauty of your longer and thicker lashes from our location eyelash extension studio is the convenience — you can schedule your appointment early in the morning, late at night, on the weekends or over your lunch break. And our affordable membership plan makes your monthly upkeep a breeze, because you'll enjoy discounted products and services and the utmost care from your favorite lash stylist.
